25X1 9. [ ] Talked with James Gehrig, Senate Space Committee, and arranged to see him at 3 o'clock tomorrow in order to handle some security processing as a preliminary to certain briefings to be conducted next week. I also indicated to Gehrig we were looking toward Tuesday or Wednesday for a discussion of the Soviet space situation with Senators Anderson, Symington, and Margaret Chase Smith.

25X1 10. [ ] Talked with William Darden, Senate Armed Services Committee staff, in connection with the meeting with Senator Stennis tomorrow. Darden indicated that in addition Senator Saltonstall and Senator Milton Young were expected and Senator Hayden had been invited. He also indicated that he had expected only Hitch and Brown. He had not been aware that Agency representatives would be present but thought this would be certainly extremely useful. He was not aware that the subject had been discussed with Mahon and Lipscomb today. He stated his view that the Appropriations Committee staff people, i. e., William Woodruff and Francis Hewitt should be present. I indicated there was no problem from our viewpoint although presumably there might be some additional technical security processing and probably in his case also. In view of the sensitivity of the topics to be discussed, Mr. Darden suggested the advisability of a technical sweep which will be arranged. He confirmed the time of 10:30 in Room 212 Old Senate Office Building.

25X1 11. [ ] I attempted to see Senator Thomas J. Dodd but since he was not available and had suggested that I take the matter up with his Staff Assistant David Martin, I discussed with Martin the Senate Internal Security Subcommittee letter to the State Department which involved questions on the [ ]. I spelled out our feeling on this and Martin said he would discuss it with the Senator. (I made a point with Martin that Senator Dodd had been involved in this previously, had said he would "take care of it if necessary," and said he saw no useful purpose in including further information on this case in the Subcommittee record.)

25X1 I took up with Martin the matter of Sourwine's interest in having Dodd preside at an executive session hearing to receive the testimony of [ ]. Martin said because of the President's schedule on the civil rights bill, Senator Dodd might find it necessary to postpone his trip to Europe and that the Senator might possibly be available for this.
